EXPLORE OKLAHOMA HISTORY

Explore Enid Your Way...

PERMANENT & TEMPORARY EXHIBITS
LIVING HISTORY VILLAGE
RESEARCH CENTER
ANNUAL EVENTS
SPECIAL PROGRAMS
WORKSHOPS

The largest competitive event in history occurred in northwest Oklahoma on Sept. 16, 1893. The Cherokee Strip Land Run saw 100,000 land-hungry pioneers racing for 40,000 plots of land and town lots. Successful settlers then staked their claim at one of four land offices, with one being in what is now Enid. By nightfall, Enid was a town of 10,000 people, and those pioneers were excited about their new adventure.

The situation today is much different than in 1893, but the results are the same. People come to Enid to stake their claim for modern adventures and opportunities, to make new memories. Come join us and STAKE YOUR CLAIM while exploring Enid your way.

PUBLIC ART

From our proud heritage to our vibrant future, the unique art sculptures and murals found throughout Enid cater to all artistic styles.

THE TRAIL .....

The Trail original metal mural by Enid artist Paul Stone was created in 2015 to commemorate the 150th anniversary of the Chisholm Trail. Local artist Tox Murillo created the picturesque scenic mural enhancing the metal cutouts in 2022.

BOOMER .....

Dedicated in 1987, Boomer depicts the beginning of the Cherokee Strip Land Run of 1893. This piece was H Holden's first monument.

80'S POP CULTURE . . .

The culture of the 1980s has been described as a colorful confetti explosion of creativity. In 2020, Enid artist Tox Murillo captured the essence of the 80s and painted it onto a 14' by 98' canvas of cool.

SHRED CITY

Shred City, the 2,700 sq. ft. mural overlooking the Enid Skate Park, was created by Los Angeles artist Kiptoe in 2021. Kiptoe's design features skateboarders on the right and BMX and scooters on the left.

EAST MAINE BRIDGE

Numerous semi trucks and high-profile vehicles have failed to heed warnings of low clearances at the East Maine Bridge and have seen the tops of their trailers peeled off. The final warning is a 6 x 72-foot shark teeth design on both sides of the bridge by local artist Wayne Shearon in 2013.

UNDER HER WING WAS THE UNIVERSE

The walkway through this unique piece of abstract art glitters during the day, and the sculpture is equipped with 1,152 "stars" that twinkle at night, inviting visitors to escape into daydreams and possibility.

See what's happening around Enid's booming public art scene

PERFORMING ARTS

Artists yearn to share their passion, to touch people's lives through performing. Escape your stresses through Enid's vast artistic talent on the stage, orchestra, and live music venues.

GASLIGHT THEATRE

As one of Oklahoma's longest-running community theatres, Gaslight has produced high quality comedies, dramas and musicals for over 50 years. Its intimate setting means there's not a bad seat in the house.

ENID SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

Step back in time to 18th-century Paris when you enjoy concerts from national and international artists in a visually-stunning symphony hall. Founded in 1905, ESO is two years older than Oklahoma.

Don't miss out on Enid's performing arts options

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT DISTRICT

Enid's downtown is one of only seven Certified Cultural Districts in Oklahoma. Live music, artist displays and more happen on First Friday April-October.

CHEROKEE STRIP REGIONAL HERITAGE CENTER

The story of perhaps the most competitive event in history is told at the Cherokee Strip Regional Heritage Center, when 100,000 land-hungry pioneers raced for 40,000 plots of land.

HUMPHREY HERITAGE VILLAGE

Four historic buildings stand at Humphrey Heritage Village, part of the Cherokee Strip Regional Heritage Center. The showcase is the U.S. Land Office that stood in Enid during the Cherokee Strip Land Run of 1893, the only land office remaining from any of the seven Oklahoma land runs. You will also find a 1902 church, a 1905 Victorian home and an 1895 one-room schoolhouse.

RAILROAD MUSEUM OF OKLAHOMA

Step into the fenced-in railyard at the Railroad Museum of Oklahoma and explore cabooses, engines, a dining car and more. Inside find an elaborate model train set larger than your living room.

Heritage

CHEROKEE STRIP REGIONAL HERITAGE CENTER

SIMPSON'S OLD TIME MUSEUM is Enid's old west movie studio, home to six full length, family-friendly Westerns. Take your photo in the old saloon, bank and hotel lobby.

WOODRUFF WALL OF HONOR & VETERANS PARK houses an 80-percent replica of the Vietnam Veteran's Memorial Wall, a museum filled with war artifacts, and a tribute to Oklahomans who gave the ultimate sacrifice.

NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES

As of publication, Enid has 27 locations on the National Register, including the Kenwood and Waverley Historic Districts, Enid's first two neighborhoods. The complete list can be found at VisitEnid.org.

JOHN WILKES BOOTH CONSPIRACY

History says John Wilkes Booth was killed in a Virginia barn two weeks after assassinating President Lincoln. But did he? Learn the story of David E. George at the old Grand Hotel, now Garfield Furniture.
